OUR 61ST ANNUAL COMMUNICATION

The next annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the Philippines is fast approaching.

I have directed all the chairmen of the various committees in the Grand Lodge to prepare and submit their reports so that the same can be printed for distribution to the delegates earlier. There are also various committees at work on the physical arrangement, credentials, billeting and other aspect of the communication to insure its success.

We urge the delegates to register earlier to avoid the last minute rush that sometimes result in frayed nerves on the part of the delegates and committee members. Send in your Lodge resolutions earlier so that the brethren in the resolutions committee will have more time to consider them and give them proper evaluation and recommendation.

Let us all work together to make the coming annual communication a success.

VOLUME OF THE SACRED LAW

It is interesting to note the various references made to the Great Light in Masonry, the Rule and Guide to our Faith. Each of the Religions of the world have their respective Holy Book. For Christians it is the Holy Bible, more particularly the New Testament. In Freemasonry, at least in the Grand Lodge of the Philippines, being a Christian is not a requirement for membership. Therefore, prior to being obligated, the candidate should be asked which of the Religions of the world is for him the true one and according to his answer, he should be obligated upon the Holy Book of his faith.

Since the great majority of our members are Christians, it appears we may have overlooked the presence of our brethren of other religions, because in our Jurisdiction our Ritual refers exclusively to the Holy Bible and requires it to be open during every meeting of a Lodge. In the Installation Service of Subordinate Lodges, you recall references are made to "the Holy Scriptures," our Constitution provides for a Grand Bible Bearer, and it also provides for the Holy Writings, to be borne in all ceremonies.

In some Masonic Jurisdictions this has been handled differently. Reference is made only to the Volume of the Sacred Law. In Christian areas, it is of course the Holy Bible. But in other religious areas, the Holy Book of the dominant religion is the one opened on the altar.

In the Southern provinces many of our members are Moslems. If we refer only to the Holy Bible in these Lodges, it is a discourtesy to our Moslem brethren. But if we refer to the Volume of the Sacred Law, and display the Holy Book representing the faith of the greater number of members, all will be honored.

Soon, our 1977 Annual Communication will convene in Manila to discuss and decide many things of great importance to our Fraternity. Consideration should be given to change all references to the Holy Bible, to that of the Volume of the Sacred Law. This would constitute a simple, genuine manifestation of Brotherly Love.

DOING JUSTICE TO OUR FRATERNAL BOND

VW ISAAC S. PUNO, JR. DDGM
DISTRICT NO. 1

One of the basic teachings of Masonry is that "it is so far interwoven with religion as to lay us under obligations to pay that rational homage to the Deity which at once constitutes our duty and our happiness. It leads the contemplative Mason to view with reverence and admiration the glorious works of creation, and inspires him with the most exalted ideas of the perfections of his divine Creator." Masonry is inseparably linked with the Holy Bible which forever sheds its benignant rays upon every lawful assemblage of Free and Accepted Masons. We look up to the Book of Ages for guidance, assistance, and inspiration in and out of the Lodge. One of its honored verses reads —

"He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

(Micah 6:8)

To do justice is a divine emanation. It is a direct mandate from the Great Architect of the Universe which is not only reflected in the Holy Bible, but is ingrained as one of the cardinal virtues of Masonry.

Thus —

"Justice is that standard or boundary of right which enables us to render unto every man his just due, without distinction. This virtue is not only consistent with divine and human laws, but is the very cement and support of civil society; and, as justice in a great measure constitutes the really good man, so should it be the invariable practice of every Mason never to deviate from the minutest principles thereof; x x x"

For his part, Albert Pike, writing in "Morals and Dogma explained —

"x x x Justice as between men and man and as between man and the animals below him, is that which, under and according to the God-created relations existing between them, and the whole aggregate of circumstances surrounding them, is fit and right and proper to be done, with a view to the general as well as to the individual interest. It is not a theoretical principle by which the very relations that God has created and imposed on us are to be tried, and approved or condemned."

Justice, if properly observed and practiced, strengthens a Lodge. It gives individual and collective power. And it yields fruitful and beneficial results.

To start with, a man becomes a Mason of his own free will and accord. He comes to the Fraternity uninvited. When he knocks on the door of Masonry, he signifies his serious intent to begin the search for perfection. It may be a long quest which may not even be consummated during his brief earthly sojourn. He may enjoy the fruits of his labor not in his physical clothing but in his spiritual attire. In scriptural parlance —

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

"For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

(Matthew 7: 7-8)

A Mason does not do justice to his membership in the Fraternity if he does not grace it with his presence, be directly involved in its activities, and patiently probe its esoteric mysteries.

Attendance enhances the bond of friendship and fellowship among members. They get to know one another not from a distance, but from within the intimate circle of brotherhood. They understand each other better and become more charitable to one another. They begin to really appreciate humaneness and compassion. They feel the meaningful impact of the biblical and Masonic injunction to love one another.

A perceptive preacher once dwelt on the subjectmatter, "Love One Another." He shocked his sophisticated congregation by claiming that animals can be more intelligent, more kind, and more respectful in their treatment of one another than human beings are. To illustrate his thesis, he narrated that two goats once met head-on in a very narrow bridge. The bridge was so narrow that if they attempted to pass each other, one would surely fall in the deep river. "And what do you think they did? the preacher asked. "It was simple and intelligent and kind. One goat just laid down on the floor of the bridge, and the other jumped over him." He concluded with the words, "Ah, beloved, let us live like goats."

On the other hand, a deceased member of the Philippine Bodies who had performed some office chores for his Bodies once remarked: "I never realized the beauty of Masonry until I began sitting in this chair and had the opportunity to be in contact with brother Masons who are highly placed in government and professional circles and found them without any aura of officialdom or arrogance and who treated me like a true brother Mason."

Indeed, to be with the brethren in the Lodge, or in other fraternal functions, adds lustre and meaning to our Masonic membership. We are able to experience the joy of the psalmist who exclaimed:

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

"It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments."

(Psalm 133:1-2)

But being in the Lodge and fraternizing with the members is not all there is to it. Masonry is not merely a social club where the members enjoy each other's company. Fellowshiping with one another is just part of Masonic tradition. Masonry stands for a more serious concern — that of profound service to the brethren, their widows, and orphans, and the promotion of the general good of society. "To soothe the unhappy, to sympathize with their misfortunes, to compassionate their miseries, and to restore peace to their troubled minds, is the great aim we have in view." Again, this is anchored in the biblical parable which narrates —

"Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world;

"For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

"Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

"Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

"When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

"Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

(Matthew 25:34-40)

Unless Masons actively get involved in serving with sincerity and unselfishly their brethren in particular and humanity in general, their membership in this exalted Order is all for naught. Their commitment to be involved and to serve must not only be firm, but must be enlightened and forward-looking. In the thought-provoking words of Mark Gibbs and T. Ralph Morton in their challenging book, "God's Lively People" —

"x x x We have a commitment to get involved, to relate the faith to the uncertainties and agonies of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, and not to retreat psychologically to the nineteenth century. To be involved does not mean that we must lose ourselves simplistically or romantically in the fads or the enthusiasms of the moment. x x x to be involved is to understand what it means to live in a modern democracy and not in a mediaeval or a slave state."

(Pages 12-13)

The price for service is most alluring, especially to those who have extraordinary talents and resources. But he who refuses to heed the call to service when the opportunity presents itself will reap his just reward. Once more, in the clear dictum of the Holy Bible, "the rule and guide of our faith" —

"For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance; but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

"And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

(Matthew 25:29-30)

Be that as it may, attendance and involvement will not be truly effective — and will not do real justice — if Masons do not strive to enhance their knowledge and wisdom. It is not enough that they are adept at their professions and consequently realize a substantial income; and neither will it suffice if they know their Masonic rituals and be doubly proficient in conferring the degrees. They need much more than these. "Indeed, we all know that it is only by continually learning, constantly hearing about new ideas x x x, and constantly retraining and re-educating ourselves that we can survive in the modern world, where the pace of change is such that at least one hundred years of our grandparents' world are crammed into twenty-five of ours, so that a man of seventy-five is now something like three hundred years old. x x x education for modern man can never stop. x x x For "since the world is now in a state of constant change, the wisdom we have inherited from our fathers and grandfathers is only part of what we need if we are to adopt to the world of tomorrow" (Gibbs and Morton, Id., pp. 20; 24).

We have to understand fully the background of our Masonic faith, our present direction, and our future thrust. Like any other secular organization, our Grand Lodge and the Blue Lodges constituting it must keep abreast with modern trends in administration and management without losing track of our ancient customs, usages, and charges which have been venerated down through the ages. This presupposes the employment of intellectual leadership which must be keen and perceptive so that whatever constructive changes are effected will not — in any way — do violence to recognized Masonic tradition and landmarks.

It is probably opportune time for the Grand Lodge to require of its officers and members selective studies on Masonic education and modern management. This will necessarily include all elective and appointive Grand Lodge Officers, District Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Lodge Inspectors, and Blue Lodge officers. The study may be conducted on the Grand Lodge, Regional, and District levels. It will entail a lot of time, efforts, resources, patience, and determination. But if the goals and objectives sought to be achieved are amply elucidated and made interesting and challenging, there is no conceivable reason why responsible Masons will not respond with enthusiasm, especially if in the long run, positions in the Grand Lodge and Blue Lodges will be reserved to those who have attended the study courses. The grain will be separated from the chaff. Quality Masons will be produced and Masonry in this jurisdiction will emerge strong, vibrant, and productive. Only then may we do justice to our fraternal bond, and with chin up, claim before the Great White Throne that we have been honest and sincere in our membership in the Craft.

GRATITUDE

VW ARTHUR SCHRAMM, PDGM

One does not have to live very long before he becomes aware of the pleasure of doing things for appreciative people and the disappointment of doing things for people who seem to lack a sincere sense of appreciation or who somehow fail to show it. This is true in all the relationship of life – of man to man, of friend to friend, and within the family circle. In almost every situation there are some who sit and have meals placed before them, and dishes done, and clothes cleaned and put in place, and a thousand other such services. Among the ingredients that keep such labor from becoming unendurable drudgery are love and gratitude. Gratitude lubricates labor and makes every chore, every task, a satisfying service. Gratitude among men is an essential.

Whether we think we have much or little, we have cause to give thanks for everything that is ours – for the food we eat, for friends and freedom, for the warmth we feel from the sun, for the companionship of people, for the leaves that fall and again come forth, for the rain that filters through the soil, for the beauty and providence of the earth – for the very air we breathe, for the very life we live. And it should be our gratitude as we look out each new day, that we offer fervent thankfulness for the privilege of living another day of life. And we might look at every cherished thing in life as if it were ours only once – as if we had this day alone to live, this one hour of sweet association with those we love. But when so much of such things we have had, likely we let them become commonplace and look at them as if they had just happened instead of coming to us as a special favor of our creator. There is an ancient citation that says: “He that receives a gift with gratitude repays the first installment of his debt (Seneca). If we may quote Cicero, we may say that “gratitude is not only the greatest of the virtues, but the parent of all others.”

But whether or not it be the greatest, gratitude is highly becoming to all. Perhaps not everyone who voices gratitude is actually grateful. Likewise, perhaps not everyone who fails to speak his gratitude is actually ungrateful. But to be valid, it would surely seem that gratitude should show some form of expression, by word or act or attitude. Of course, there are many degrees and varieties of gratitude. For example, it was once stated, and has often since been quoted, that "gratitude is a lively sense of favors to come." But that gratitude which is prompted chiefly by the anticipation of further favors is, in a sense, not gratitude at all, but merely a polite suggestion to give again.

Most of us are grateful for a favor that someone does for us the first time. But if a favor we have frequently received fails to be repeated, it may become a cause of disgruntled complaint. Indeed, there are those who become accustomed to favors that they demand as their irrevocable right for which they were once sincerely grateful — all of which suggests the wisdom of proceeding with discretion, lest which was a favor to begin with, comes to be looked upon as a vested right. The gratitude of a friend for whom some service has been done is among the richest of payments. But an ungrateful friend is a sore disillusionment. Likewise there is no effort too difficult, no sacrifice too great for a parent to make for a child — if the child is grateful. But an ungrateful child is sorrow and a disappointment. One way of finding out how much we have to be grateful for, is to give up some of our blessings and see how grateful we would be to have them back. Consider for a moment just one seemingly simple thing: nourishing food — not fancy foods, not the trimmings, but merely the simple strength-sustaining food. We may have come to consider it as commonplace, but let it be taken from us for only a few days, or for only one day — and see how abundantly blessed we should feel to have it back. Let us look at health — just ordinary, reasonably good health, just the feeling that it's good to be alive; let us once stop feeling like a functioning, hearty human being, and we quickly come to learn the surpassing blessing of having health. Let us look at work: sometimes we complain of it, but let someone take from us the privilege to work, or let illness prevent us from working, and we should soon see what a blessing it would be to have our work back. Let us look at freedom: We may have come to accept it casually — freedom to live where we want, or worship as we want, to work at what we want; freedom from intrusion upon the privacy of our homes, freedom to read and to think as we wish: once it is lost — as it has been by so many men (or as it has never been known to many men) — and we should soon see how unspeakably grateful we would be for freedom. If we need any added evidence of what we have to be grateful for, let there be taken from us even the least of the seemingly simple things that make life livable, and we should soon feel unbelievably blessed to have back what we may now have come to consider as commonplace.

THE PHILIPPINE ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF, INC. AND ITS OBJECTIVES

BY: WB PABLO C. MARIANO, PM
KASILAWAN LODGE NO. 77

The Philippine Association of the Deaf, Inc. or PAD for short, was organized in 1962 by a group of deaf people headed by Pedro M. Santos of Bulacan with the primordial purpose stated in its Preamble, of establishing an association that shall work for the moral, physical, educational intellectual and general welfare of the deaf irrespective of creed, religion or political persuasion; and to promote and foster the spirit of friendship, harmonious relation and common understanding among themselves. Specifically, the Association shall seek the following: (a) To advance the cause of education for the deaf; (b) To promote vocational and industrial education for self-improvement and to secure employment for the unemployed deaf; (c) To protect and help the deaf people and promote their happiness; (d) To obtain just recognition for the deaf in the Civil Service or other lines of employment; (e) To inculcate the spirit of good citizenship; (f) To help the deaf people involved in judicial cases whenever necessary to secure justice; (g) To acquire, lease and own any and all real estate and or personal properties that may be necessary or useful in carrying out the purposes for which the Association was formed and to receive and accept donations of money or property, real or personal, from any person or entity, including the Republic of the Philippines or any of the sub-division and instrumentalities and to accept and administer real or personal property in trust for the above-mentioned purposes.

PAD is governed by a policy governing body – a Board of Directors composed of 15 members of good standing in the community and who have signified their willingness to serve as volunteers. The members of the Board of Directors are elected every two years at a general meeting by the members of the Association who in turn elect their own officers from among themselves – a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor and 11 Directors. At present, of the 15, members of the Board, four are deaf and the rest hearing persons. However, in order to prepare the deaf for an eventual take-over their participation in the Board will be gradually increased by giving them additional membership until such time as the reins of government shall be totally in the hands of the deaf thereby giving them full and complete autonomy.

MEMBERSHIP

Who are and how may they become members of the Association? Under its By-Laws, membership is divided into 4 categories, namely: (1) Regular; (2) Honorary; (3) Associate; (4) Life Members.

Regular Members – Any deaf person residing in the Philippines may become a Regular member upon application and payment of entrance fee and shall remain in good standing upon continuous payment of membership dues, unless remove for cause from the roster.

Honorary Members – Honorary members are elected by two-thirds vote of its members present at any general meeting of the Association. They are exempt from the payment of fees and dues, but they cannot vote and hold offices.

Associate Members – Any person residing in the Philippines, whether deaf or not, may be elected Associate member upon being sponsored by any member in good standing at any meeting of the Association by a two-thirds vote of the members present. An associate member shall have the same duties and privileges of a regular member and may be elected to offices.

Life Members – Any member, whether Regular or Associate may become Life a member upon payment of P100.00 to the Association and shall be exempt from payment of annual dues.

PAD is a national multi-purpose organization. Through the years, it has patiently struggled to attain the goal for which it was founded: providing the deaf with programs that encompass the educational, economic, social and psychological well-being of the deaf people and their families.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

In consonance with the noble objective of our Association, we have embarked in an ambitious and massive educational program intended to alleviate the educational plight of the deaf children and adults. As an eminent writer has aptly stated “education is the salvation of the deaf, deprived of which they will be doubly handicapped”. This program includes a four-year preparatory program, complete with elementary program, adult literacy program, classes for parents of deaf children, and a communication skills program.

Incidentally, we are happy to announce that our school for the deaf is already recognized and given a permit by the Department of Education and Culture. We have at present an enrollment of about 160 students, besides the adults, and we are employing 14 school teachers headed by the Assistant Executive Secretary and concurrently Head of the Education Department. In line with the educational policy of PAD to raise and improve the standards of our teaching staff, two of our teachers are taking Master's degree in education during summer classes at the expense of the Association. Moreover, the Head of our Education Department is now studying at the Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C., the only college for the deaf in the whole world, as our pensionado taking Master's degree in special studies, also at our expense. In addition, scholarship grants are given to bright deaf students. At present we have two deaf scholars in college. In this connection, we might mention an interesting fact that in line with our long range program, we are committed to send more pensionados abroad in the future. Thus, this will be a continuing project of the Association.

Notwithstanding the fact that our Association does not receive any subsidy from the Government, yet the students in our school do not pay anything to the Association; they are not paying either registration or matriculation fee; they are admitted free-of-charge. Besides, those who are below 12 years old are given free transportation from home to school and from school to home.

ECONOMIC PROGRAM

The economic program is being taken care of by means of handicraft and job opportunities designed to develop their potentialities and provide them jobs to enable them to earn a living, gain self-confidence, and become independent taxpaying citizens thereby making them feel they are a part of society. As a result, deaf persons, as a group, prefer honest labor to doleouts; and if given a chance, they can live as others live.

Our primary objective is to fully develop the social and economic competence of the disabled. This can only be carried out and properly implemented by making the community, and that includes the volunteers, get involved and lead in this continuing process so that in the final analysis we would be able to realize our goal that will serve as an abject lesson that rehabilitation is a very profitable and sound investment in the development of human resources.

At present we have around 350 employees in our payroll working in our coffee shops and restaurants — at the Rizal Park (Luneta), Children's Playground, Quirino Grandstand, Paco Park, Connell Bros., Bank of America and Makati Headquarters. They receive wages in accordance with Minimum wage Law, with one free meal and snacks. Supervisors receive higher wages. They are given bonus every 3 months plus other fringe benefits.

SOCIAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Social Assistance Program is aimed at providing health services for social, economic and physical well-being of its members and help them and their families attain a decent living. This includes counselling and interpreting services in any situation or need to help solve their problems whenever they are misunderstood because of communication barrier. In consonance with this program, we have also our medical and dental clinics with volunteer doctors and dentists giving free services to all the members of the Association free-of-charge and free medicines.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

As the saying goes: "Work and work without play makes Jack a dull boy". In adherence to this time honored maxim, we provide wholesome recreation and relaxation designed to promote the physical and mental development of our workers by giving them one whole day every year to go on outing at the expense of the Association. Besides, we have our gymnasium where they can play basketball and other games of amusement in order to maintain physical fitness.

We want to develop our members, specifically the youth, to be physically fit. We want to have a strong, vigorous and sturdy youth of today who will automatically become the nucleus of the citizens of tomorrow. If a man is strong, vigorous and physically developed, he becomes an asset to society; whereas, if a man is weak and sickly, he becomes a liability to the community.

WELFARE PROGRAM

The PAD's welfare program is thus conceived and implemented with due concern with the totality of the deaf individual's needs. PAD is an affiliate member of the World Federation of the Deaf since 1963, and a Red Feather Agency partly financed by the Community Chest Foundation of Metro Manila.

The Philippine Association of the Deaf celebrated its 50th Anniversary last October 1976. Special highlights of the affair was the holding of the "First Asian Conference on Deafness" participated in by experts and deaf specialist from countries of Asia, including the Philippines. The theme of the conference which was hosted by PAD was "Development and involvement of the Deaf in Nation-Building". The objectives of the conference were as follows: (1) To awaken and stimulate community interest on the potentials of the deaf; (2) To develop social consciousness and sense of responsibility among the deaf; (3) To bring together various disciplines involved in the rehabilitation of the deaf and assess their contributions in the economic progress of the country; (4) To determine new trends in the educational program of the deaf; (5) To identify points of coordination among Asian countries in planning, implementing and evaluating educational and employment program of the deaf; and (6) To recommend training and employment policies for the deaf.

It was my good fortune and privilege to propose to the delegates who attended the First Asian Conference on Deafness the formation of Asian Federation of the Deaf, for it is my honest belief that the time has come for all the countries of Asia to band themselves together for a common purpose of expanding the horizon of welfare services that will inure to the benefit of our less fortunate segment of society who belong to the Silent World – the deaf.

The proposed ASIAN FEDERATION OF THE DEAF (AFD), as conceived, shall be a non-governmental organization from the different countries of Asia, which aims at providing an Asian forum for the discussions of various problems of the deaf and other related issues in the hope of finding satisfactory solutions. The Federation also aims to promote the exchange of ideas and information and sharing experiences among the volunteer workers, social agencies and others, interested in carrying out the aim and objectives of the Federation. It is envisioned that the formation of the Asian Federation of the Deaf will foster international cooperation and better understanding among the Asian countries; it shall provide a regional forum where participating members could gather and share a platform in the themes of vital importance to their field and to their region.

WB REY IS A QUALIFIED REPRESENTATIVE SINCE HE HAS EXPERIENCE IN THE SALES OF LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES WITH A COMMERCIAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

WITH THIS APPOINTMENT, WE CAN NOW EXPECT MORE MEMBERSHIPS FOR THE SOCIETY FROM MASONIC DISTRICT NO. 13.

SYMBOLISM OF ACACIA

The Acacia is the symbol of immortality and faith, since without faith immortality is not real to anyone. In putting Acacia at the Master's temporary grave, Freemasonry follows beliefs which go back to the captivity of the Jews in Egypt.

Like the evergreen of this country, Acacia is hardy. Sprouts came often from beams and columns made of Acacia, the shittah wood of the Old Testament. The symbol of life and to mark the resting place of the dead that footsteps profane it not.

Sixto Lopez (Batulao) Lodge No. 129

- M Mayamungmong, maalindog kung sakaling pithayain,
Masanghayang kausapin pagka't siya'y sakdal giliw;
Mithiin ay maimbulog, kaya naman amatapatin,
May pangarap na ang buhay dumalisay at numingning.
- A Aklat siyang nakabukas sa pangmalas at paningin, Akay pa rin at pagdamay sa sinumang may panimdm;
Aliwiw kung nasa batis, at pananglaw sa madilim,
Aliw ng may salamisim at l'walhati ng simpanin.
- S Saluysoy sa tumanaang may tubig na sakdal tining, Suliranin ng buhong at mapag-asal na salarin
— Salanggapang kung sakali't binibigyan ng pasanin —
Sanggalang din ng sumapit sa sakuna at hilahil!
- O O-o nga at namamaling katulad ng ibang likha;
O-o rin nga at kung minsa'y para bagang sinasadya;
O-o pa rin at malimit hinding-hindi kinukusa;
O-o't kaya naghahandog ng sintabi at pithaya.
- N Nagnanasang makagawa ng lahat nang igagaling
Nitong bayang sinumpaang tanging-tanging mamahalin;
Na kaniyang maihatid sa busilak na layunin,
Nang maabot ang tugatog ng dalisay na mithiin!
