OUR ANNUAL COMMUNICATIONS

Next month our 62nd annual communications will take place. The annual communications is the occasion for the representatives of all Blue Lodges and for the members of the Grand Lodge, to deliberate on matters relating to our Fraternity.

Preparations are now being made by the officers, and members of the staff of the Grand Lodge, as well as by the committees appointed by the Grand Master, so the annual communications will be one that will be worth the time and the expense incurred by the delegates attending it. More so, because, unlike previous communications, this year we are asking the delegates to pay a registration fee.

Knowledgeable brethren who had opportunity to attend or to witness the annual communications of the Grand Lodges in other jurisdictions, specially in the United States and Europe, tell us that those annual communications had always been held with great dedication, and observed with utmost solemnity, and decorum by the Masons. In our jurisdiction, it had been observed in the past that, except the delegates from Lodges overseas, a good number of the delegates do not stay in Manila until the closing of the annual communications on the last day, which is capped by the installation of the new Grand Master and the Grand Lodge Officers. It was noted that after the election of the Grand Lodge Officers, in the afternoon of the second day, many delegates either went home, or went elsewhere, and did not attend the seminars and the exemplifications of the rituals and/or ceremonies of certain degrees and of the youth organizations on the third day.

THE STRENGTH OF MASONRY

Masonry espouses a universal brotherhood of men under the fatherhood of God. Yet, Masonry does not open its arms to embrace all men. By our system of selection, those who are chosen and admitted to Masonry are but few compared with the total number of men who like us, are of the same God.

This is the dilemma: If we are truly a brotherhood of men, should we not accept all men into our brotherhood? If we do not accept all men into our brotherhood, are we truly a brotherhood of men?

The answer is obvious. We are indeed, a brotherhood of men. But, we are a brotherhood of selected men — men who have been chosen by other men who have been previously selected by the same yardstick to measure up to the same standards.

There is the key to our problem: — the same yardstick to measure to the same standards.

Unfortunately, the yardstick and the standards vary from one Lodge to another. Therefore, to determine the quality of our Grand Lodge as compared with others, we must look at the Lodge within our Jurisdiction that has the lowest standards and applies the easiest yardstick.

No chain is stronger than its weakest link. No Grand Lodge is stronger than its weakest Lodge.

With the Annual Communication coming next month, perhaps during the ensuing year a project of Grand Lodge can be initiated to strengthen the weakest links — or to eliminate them by combining the weak Lodges with the strong.

HIGH PRINCIPLES

By Dr. Arthur Schram, Hon. PGM, 33°
Member of Lodge "Fraternity and Perseverance" No. 31

It seems that there are many standards of conduct that most of us feel others should observe. But the point where we often part company is when and to whom the principles should apply.

Of course it is true there are some wholly unprincipled people who don't even give lip service to a high code of conduct, but most of the people who at least pay lip service to high principles — people who concede, for example, that the Golden Rule is a desirable code of conduct, that the Ten Commandments are not purely of the past but still apply to people of the present; that honesty, morality, fair dealing, clean living and considering others as we should consider ourselves, are still indispensable principles that should apply to all persons.

Most of us agree to such things in the abstract. But we are sometimes disposed to think more of their application to others and to make liberal allowances for ourselves. When we hear some sound advice, a sensible sermon, or a recipe or precept for improving people, we frequently think of others who we wish had heard it. We think how fine it would be for our friends.

Almost every day we hear or read of remarkable means and methods that tell how to improve talents, how to make better use of our time, how to live within our income, how to avoid marital misunderstanding, how to get along with neighbors, how to teach children. We rarely hear or read of such suggestions without thinking how fine they would be for our friends. And if there is a community cause or projects for which we are called to assume some responsibility, we are frequently full of suggestions as to others who should be interested in it and who should take time to do it (excepting ourselves). So long as we are interested primarily in improving other people our own approach to improvement will be such nor slow than if we should begin with ourselves, and see first what the recommended remedy would do for us, and second, how fine it would be for our friends.

It seems that there is less or at least too little willingness on the part of too many people to accept real responsibility - for themselves or for their decisions, for the soundness and success of enterprises or institutions, for instance for such of anything at all. Some who are less willing to carry any real weight seem to feel that they have the unlimited license to criticize the decisions that other men make, and misjudge motives. Every honour or office, every privilege or right carries with it real responsibility. And yet from the comfortable position of having little or no responsibility and of having the vantage of second sight, one may harshly judge other men who have heavy responsibility and who have to make decisions on first sight.

It takes courage to carry responsibility. It takes courage to make decisions. It takes courage to take criticism - especially from those who won't share the risk or the weight or the worry - especially from those who play little or no part in the performance.

Some men are wiser than others, some more able, some more informed, but we expect honour and honesty, integrity and intelligence, prudence and candor and courage. All these we may expect - those high qualities of character but not omniscience and not perfection. Let us cite those lines from Lincoln: "I do the very best I know how the very best I can; and I mean to keep on doing so." That is about as much as men can do, the very best they know how - along with willingness to accept a share of responsibility and with an awareness that there is no right without responsibility not even the right to criticize.

THE LAMBSKIN APRON

By: Filomeno Adi

“It is an emblem of innocence and the badge of a Mason, more ancient than the Golden Fleece or Roman Eagle, and when worthily worn, more honorable than the Star and Garter.”

There is no Brother who ever entered the portals of a Masonic Lodge who has not heard these solemn words. These words poken during the apron presentation ceremony are to my estimation, some of the most beautiful in our ritual.

But what did the Worshipful Master mean when he said “more ancient than the Golden Fleece or the Roman Eagle?” Research indicates that the Greek myth of “Jason and the Argonauts” is based on fact. More than 3,000 years ago the ancients had so called “Placer” mines on the sandy shores of the black sea. The gold was carried down by the creeks and the rivers from the interior of what is now Russia.

This gold, small specks or dust, was separated from the sand in “sluices” with corrugation or “slats” across the bottom. As the water washed away the sand, the heavier gold remained in the grooves. Jason, not having anything better, used a rams fleece. Again the sand was easily washed away, leaving the heavier gold entrapped in the fleece. No doubt he repeated this operation many times before his return with the “Golden Fleece”.

The Order of the Golden Fleece was founded in 1430 by Philip the Good Duke of Burgundy. This fraternal order spread all over Europe, and was still in existence into the twentieth century.

The Freemasons may have been also influenced in their selection of a reference to the Golden Fleece because, in the Middle Ages, it was one of the most important symbols of the Hermetic philosophers.

The eagle in symbolism dates back to the Stone Age. Drawings of eagles have been found in caves occupied by our ancestors thousands of years ago. Eagles symbolise courage, freedom and immortality. The eagle has long been used as national, military and heraldic symbols.

The eagle has also been used as a symbol in religion from the time of Belshazzar, King of Babylon, and by Charlemagne, the Caesars, and other Roman and Holy Byzantine emperors.

Marius, the Consul, first consecrated the eagle, about eight years, before the Christian era, to be the Sole Roman standard at the head of every legion, and above their banner. Hence, it became the ensign of the Roman Imperial power ever afterward.

As the single headed eagle was thus adopted as the symbol of Imperial Power, the double headed eagle naturally became the representative of a double empire; and in the division of the roman dominions into the Eastern and Western Empires. They were afterwards consolidated by the Carlovingian race into what was called the Holy Empire; one head looking as it were to the West or Rome; and the other to the East, or Byzantium. Archeologists have found double headed eagles on artifacts in digging in Babylonia, dated 3,000 B.C.

And what did the Worshipful Master mean he said "more honorable than the Star and Garter."

The Order of the Garter is the oldest and most illustrious of European Orders. Its origin is attributed to King Edward III. At a ball celebrating the capture of Calais in August 1347, the King was dancing with Joan, the Countess of Salisbury. When one of her garters came loose and fell to the floor, the King picked up the blue ribbon and bound it around his own knee; rebuking onlookers with the words "Honi soit qui mal y pense," "Shame, or evil, be to him who evil thinks."

The King declared that the garter soon would be highly honored, and within six months he and companion knights were wearing, below the left knee, garters of blue silk embroidered with the motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense."

The most noble Order of the Garter was formally constituted April 23, 1348, the first St. George Day. The Order is composed of twenty-five knights and the King, or the Queen, the only lady member.

The insignia of the Order are the garter, the Mantle, the Surcoat and Hood, the Collar with the George pendent therefrom the star is the lesser George. The garter is of dark blue velvet with Motto of the Order in letters of gold, and worn on the left leg below the knee. The Mantle is of dark blue velvet lined with white silk, with the badge of the Order, the arms of St. George, within the garter, on the left shoulder. The surcoat and hood are of crimson velvet lined with white silk.

The star was instituted by King Charles I in 1629, to be worn by the knights on their dress when not wearing the Mantle; it consist of the bade of the Order — the arms of St. George within the garter, placed on radiating beams of glory in the form of an eight pointed silver star. It is worn with the riband and lesser George in evening dress.

Thus, the apron is proudly compared with the noblest decorations of Ancient Rome and Modern Europe.

LAST NIGHT I KNELT WHERE HIRAM KNELT

*Last night I knelt where Hiram knelt
And took an obligation
Today I'm closer to my God,
And I'm a Master Mason.*

*Tho' heretofore my fellow men
Seemed each one like the other,
Today I search one apart:
I'm looking for "My Brother."*

*And as I feel his friendly grip,
It fills my heart with pride;
I know that while I'm on the square
That he is on my side.*

*His footsteps on my errand go
If I should such require;
His prayers will plead in my behalf
If I should so desire.*

*My words are safe within his breast
As though within my own;
His hand for ever at my back
To help me safely home.*

*Good Council whispers in his ear
And warns of any danger;
By square and compass, Brother now!
Who once would call me stranger.*

*I might have live a moral life
And risen to distinctions
Without my brother's helping hand
And fellowship of Masons.*

*But God, Who knows how hard it is
To resist life's temptations,
Knows why I knelt where Hiram knelt
And took that obligation.*

PAGBANGON SA LIBINGAN NG DAKILANG GURO

Ni: KAP. IRINEO P. GOCE, N.G.

Ang puntod na pinaglibingan sa Dakilang Guro ay nasa hardin ng Siloam, sagana sa mga bulaklak, at malapit sa tahanan ni Joseph.

Bago nagsimula ang pagbantay ay nagpasugo si Caiaphas ng mga pari, na magtungo sa nasabing hardin at tiyaking ang bangkay ng Guro ay nasa loob ng libingan. Binuklat nila ang pintong-batong panakip; nakita nila ang katawang bangkay, at ibinalik ang bato.

Pinaparonan ni Pilato ang libingan sa kaniyang tagalimbag at tinatakan ng selyong Romano ang pintong-bato, sa pamamaraang kung sinuman ang magtangkang kilusin ang bato ay masisira nito ang selyo. Bitay ang kaparusahan sa sinumang makasira ng nasabing selyo.

Ang mga kawal Hudyong nagsisipagbantay ay pinapanumpa ng katapatan; at nagsimula ang pagtaliba sa libingan. Tahimik ang lahat hanggang sa pagsapit ng hating-gabi, at sa isang iglap ay biglang nagliwanag ang libingan.

Sa hardin ay nakitang naglalakad ang isang hanay ng nakadamit-puti na mga kawal. Nagtuloy sila sa may pintuan ng libing, at paikut-ikot silang nagmartsa sa harapan ng pinto.

Ang mga kawal Hudiyo ay nagulumihan. Inakala nilang ang mga kapanalig ng Guro ay nagtungo roon upang kunin ang bangkay. Sumigaw ng utos pagsalakay ang pinuno ng mga kawal Hudiyo; at silang ay sumalakay. Datapuwa't ni isa sa nakadamit-puting mga kawal ay walang natinag. Patuloy silang nagmartsa, kahalubilo ng mga kawal Hudiyo. Huminto sila sa harap ng selyong Romano. Hindi sila nagsalita ng anuman; ni hindi nagbunot ng mga kalis. Sila ang Tahimik na Kapatiran.

Ang mga kawal Hudiyo ay nagtakbuhan sa laki ng takot, nangabuwal na nagkalat sa paligid samantalang ang nakaputing mga kawal ay nagsialis. Samantala, ang liwanag sa paligid ng libingan ay unti-unting nangulimlim.

Nagsibalik ang mga kawal Hudiyo. Ang pintong-bato ay hindi natinag; ang selyo ay hindi nabago. At itinuloy ang kanilang pagbantay.

Samantala, ang Guro ay hindi natulog sa ilalim ng libingan. Ang katawan ay patunay ng kaluluwa; datapuwa't ang kaluluwa ay kaluluwa na walang kaniyang patunay. At sa larangan ng mga kaluluwa, wala mang patunay, ang Guro ay patuloy na humayo at nagturo. Binuksan niya ang pinto ng mga piitan at pinakawalan ang mga bilanggo. Nilansag niya ang tanikala sa mga katuluwang alipin at ang mga ito ay inakay patungo sa liwanag.

Lumikmo siyang kapanayam ang mga katandaan at propeta nang nakaraang mga panahon. Ang mga guro ng lahat nang kapanahunan at sa alinmang mga dako ay kaniyang kinatagpo, at sa malalaking mga pagtitipon ay isinalaysay ang naging buhay niya sa ibabaw ng kupa, ang kaniyang pagkamatay upang sagipin ang sangkatauhan; at ang mga pangakong mabubuhay Siyang mag-uli at makikilabay sa kaniyang mga disipulo upang bigyang patunay ang mga kakayahan ng tao; upang ipagkaloob sa kanila ang susi ng buhay, ng kamatayan, at ng muling pagkabuhay.

Sa ganoong panayam, ang mga guro ay nagsipag-usap ukol sa mga babala ng darating pang mga panahon. Na ang ibabaw ng lupa at papawirin sa kalawakan ay pupunin ng Hiningang Banal upang buksan ang landasin ng tao patungo sa kawalang-sala at buhay na walang hanggan.

Samantala, ang hardin ng Siloam ay lipos ng katahimikan nang Sabadong nakaraan. Patuloy na nagtaliba ang mga kawal Hudiyong bantay, at walang ibang lumapit sa libingan. Nang muling sumapit ang gabi ay malaki ang ipinagbago.

Nang hating-gabi na ang bawa't kawal Hudiyo ay nakarinig ng tinig na nagsabi: Adon Maschich Cumi (Dakilang Guro magbangon).

Ipinalagay ng mga taliba na ang mga kapanalig ng Guro ay muling darating upang kunin ang kaniyang bangkay. Nagbunot ng kalis ang mga bantay. Narinig nilang muli ang tinig. Para bagang ang nagsasalita ay nasa lahat nang dako nguni't wala silang nakitang sinuman.

Namutla ang mga kawal sa takot, nguni't kung magtakbo ay magdurusa ng kamatayan sa pagiging duwag; kaya't dumoon sila at patuloy na nagtaliba.

Muli at biglang tumingkad sa liwanag ang kalangitan bago nagbukang liwayway. Ang dagundong ng mga kulog mula sa malayo ay nagbabala ng bagyong masungit.

Yumanig ang kalupaan, at sa sinag ng nakasisilaw na liwanag ay nakitang bumaba ang isang anyo mula sa langit. Sigaw nila: tanawin ninyo ang anghel na dumarating. At narinig nilang muli: Adon Maschich Cumi.

At ang nakademit-puting anyo ay niyurakan ang selyong Romano at pinagpunitpunit ito. Hinawakan ang mabigat na pintong-bato, na waring isa lamang munting yagit, at ibinaling sa isang tabi.

Nagmuklat ng mga mata ang Dakilang Guro at nagsabi: Magbunyi ang lahat sa pagsikat ng araw; ang pagsapit ng araw ng katarungan.

Tiniklop ng Guro ang kaniyang balabal, ang bendahe sa kaniyang ulo at ang kaniyang kinumot, at isinaisang tabi ang mga ito. Siya ay tumayo, na sumandalang kaagapay ang nakasuot-puting anyo.

He was exalted in Manila Chapter No. 2, Royal Arch Masonry, Charter member of C.W. Rosenstock Chapter No. 6, R.A.M., where he served as High Priest in 1956. He was elected Secretary of the Chapter the following year and has served in this capacity to the present. He is Grand representative of the Grand Chapter of British Columbia.

WB Cariaga was greeted in Oriental Council, No. 1 Royal and select Masters and served as Illustrious Master in 1960 and is Grand Representative of the Grand Council of Delaware.

He was Knighted in the Far East Commandery, No. 1 Knights Templar and served as its Emmiment Commander in 1968. He is the Grand Representative of the Grand Commandery of Wisconsin.

Ang mga kawal na mahina ang loob ay nangagsubsob sa takot; ang higit na magiting ay nagsipagmasid. Nasaksihan nila ang katawan ng Guro na nagpanibagong anyo. Nakita nilang nagbago ito mula sa lupang katawan, na naging espiritu, at patuluyang naglaho.

Nakarinig ang mga kawal ng isang tinig mula sa malayo; mula sa lahat ng dako, na nagsabi: Kapayapaan, kapayapaan sa lupa, sa sangkatauhan ay kabutihan. At nagsibaling sila upang tingnan ang libingang puntod. Wala nang laman iyon.

Ang Dakilang Guro ay nabuhay nang muli!

WB Cariaga is a life member of the Philippine Bodies, Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite. He was invested with the Rank and Decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor in 1970 and coroneted Inspector General Honorary (33°) by the Supreme Council of the A & A.S.R. of the Philippines in 1977.

He is also a member of the Nile Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Eastern Star.

Many new Master Masons may wonder about who prepared their Master Masons Diploma, Past Masters Diplomas and other certificates issued by the Grand Lodge. They are being painstakingly prepared by WB Cariaga.

After coming to the Grand Lodge for almost 30 years, Bro. Cariaga has become an Institutions by himself.

It is hoped that this year the delegates will come to Manila early, promptly register themselves, and attend all the sessions regularly, specially the seminars on the third day and the installation of the new officers of the Grand Lodge. We have many important matters vitally affecting the Masonic Fraternity in our country that will be deliberated upon, and it is expected that every delegate will participate in, or at least listen to, the discussions and imbibe ideas that will be of relevance to the improvement of the administration of the Blue Lodges, to the maintenance of the spirit on the part of the brethren to comply with their Masonic obligations, and to matters that would enhance the purposefulness and the good name of the Masonic Fraternity before the public.

Let us make our annual communications not just an occasion when brother Masons meet and fraternize, but an event of great importance in our common endeavors for the advancement of the cause and the noble purposes of Freemasonry.

CALISTO O. ZALDIVAR
