LET US KEEP MARCHING ON

I dedicate this, my last Grand Master's message for the Masonic year about to end, to all Grand Lodge officers, district deputy grand masters, worshipful masters, wardens and other brethren who have in more ways than one have made possible what to me has been a very fruitful Masonic year.

From the first week after my assumption of office, I have been a constant traveler on land or by air visiting practically all Masonic districts, addressing district and regional conventions, installing newly elected officers of subordinate lodges, speaking before Masonic related organization like the Order of the Eastern Star and Amaranth and some civic or social organizations and I do not think it immodest to say that the length of my travel constituting and creating new subordinate lodges was equal to a trip around the world.

The memory of my travel within our Grand Jurisdiction has left a lasting imprint in my mind. The hearty and sincere welcome, the warm handclasp of a brother with pledges for Masonic fulfillment, the eagerness and enthusiasm of petitioners and initiates all topped by lavish entertainments and lively socials have been most gratifying.

I am happy to report that Masonry has had a reasonable measure of accomplishment during the past twelve months. It cheered me to no end when our still energetic Grand Secretary, MW Esteban Munnariz, informed me of a good number of petitioners, mostly young and in the prime of life, who are knocking at our door for admission. I think the main reason for this is example. The brethren and subordinate lodges have been good mirrors reflecting beautiful images.

Opportunities

The recently elected and installed officers of our Symbolic Lodges have now presided at their first two or three regular meetings and should have the "feel of things." In a few weeks the Annual Grand Lodge Communication will result in a new panel of elected and appointed officers being installed. And, once again we shall be off on a fresh, new Masonic Year.

What shall we do about it?

Our ancient and honorable fraternity has indeed remained ancient and in most respects continues ever to be honorable. However, it seems that year after year passes and we let pass with each fleeting year the multitude of opportunities available on all sides to do some thing - at least some one little thing that will set our Lodge, or our Grand Lodge just one step higher in the accomplishments of Masonry.

As an example, for years we have talked about a new system of honors and awards. In our 1967 Annual Communication definite plans were approved, but todate they remain unimplemented. Another example is the periodic enthusiasm for a Lodge of Research, which ultimately fails because our Constitution provides for a Committee of Research, which for many years has neither made any significant research nor any effective report. The same holds true for the plans for our new Masonic Temple.

Should we care to examine the past Proceedings we would find many other recommendations which having been approved by Annual Communications remain unimplemented.

As the first step in the new journey of Grand Lodge for the 1979-1980 Masonic Year, let us seize the opportunity to start by implementing the many recommendations of the past and then start making new plans for the future.

R. E. W.

REYNATO SERRANO PUNO

A wit once said that if you want things done, give them to a busy man.

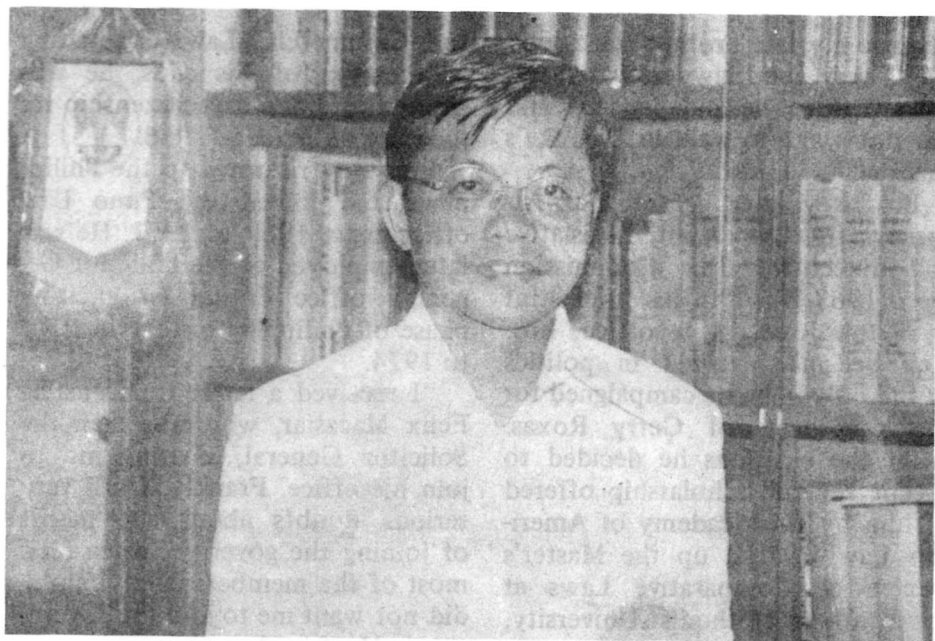

When I interviewed Assistant Solicitor General Reynato S. Puno at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, he had just come from a hearing. He hadn't had a chance to take his lunch before meeting me. But, to a man who has been trained to the disciplined life of responsible awareness, a promise was more important than a missed meal.

Bro. Rey, as he is better known to his close friends and fraternity brothers, led an active student life during his undergraduate days at the University of the Philippines. He engaged himself in various extra and co-curricular activities. It was in the field of writing, though, that he excelled. He started as Editor-in-Chief of the Philippine Collegian, the official UP weekly student newspaper and was chairman of the Editorial Board of the Law Register, the official student newspaper of the College of Law, in 1960-1961. He later became Recent Documents Editor of the Philippine Law Journal which was the official law journal of the UP College of Law and was Assistant, Editor-in-Chief of the Philippinian, UP graduate journal, in 1962. He received the Outstanding Student Award for Excellence and Leadership given by his fraternity the Alpha Phi Beta Fraternity of the College of Law, in 1960, 1961, and 1962.

Bro. Puno confessed that his first love was writing. There were instances when he clandestinely took editorial examinations without informing his parents, who did not relish the thought of their son becoming a journalist. In fact, in his salad days, fresh from high school he took the Manila Times editorial examination and passed with flying colors. This earned him a slot as assistant police reporter until this was discovered by his father, who asked him to take up law instead.

"My writing stint goes as far back as my high school days when I was involved in high school publications. I did not reach the position of editor-in-chief in the high school newspaper because of a conflict in the family. My elder brothers were also involved in writing for the same school periodical I was planning to join. Isaac was one of the editors of the Tambuli, the tagalog publication of the Aréllano High School and Leven was Editor-in-Chief of the Chronicle, the english publication of the same school. When Leven was editor-in-chief I was in the second year high school. Without them knowing it, I took the examination for a post in the Chronicle and I won it. Unfortunately, this was discovered by the family and I was prohibited from continuing. There was a compromise, though, which was that during my last year I may rejoin the editorial staff."

Bro. Rey finished his Bachelor of Science in Jurisprudence and Bachelor of Laws in 1962 after 6 years of stay at the University of the Philippines. After passing the Bar examinations he became an assistant attorney of the Roxas, Sarmiento Law office in 1962-63.

"I did not go with any of these big law firms but instead joined a medium sized law office. That is the law office of former Senator Gerardo Roxas and Abraham Sarmiento, the latter being one of the vice presidents of the Constitutional Convention and is one of our brothers in the fraternity. Sarmiento is a member of Hiram Lodge No. 88 and of the Luzon Bodies, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. I did not join my father's law office because my late brother Isaac, who was a very good lawyer, was there. I wanted to be independent and did not want to walk in Bro. Ike's shadow."

Bro. Rey later became Tax Attorney for the Joint Legislative and Executive Tax Commission from 1963-1967. In his brief stint with the Roxas Law office, Bro. Rey became involved in politics in the 60's when he campaigned for the candidacy of Gerry Roxas. After the elections he decided to accept the full scholarship offered to him by the Academy of American Law to take up the Master's Degree of Comparative Laws at the Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas.

"I was able to finish my master's degree with high honors; a valedictorian in a class consisting of 23 graduate scholars from various parts of the world. As an honor graduate I was granted another full scholarship by the Walter Perry Johnson Foundation to study Master of Laws at the University of California in Berkeley. After my master of laws degree, I was privileged to have a tuition scholarship given me by the University of Illinois at Champaign, Urbana, to study and become a Doctor of Juridical Science."

Bro. Puno finished all the academic requirements minus a doctoral dissertation. While a student in the United States, Bro. Rey was a recipient of the American Jurisprudence Prize for Excellence in Comparative Private International Law, US Constitutional Structure, International Organizations, Problems of Doing Business Abroad, and Commercial Law. Graduating at the top of his class, he was granted an honorary citizenship by the state of Texas in 1966.

Bro. Rey returned to the Philippines and joined the Puno Law office from 1969 to 1971. He was later employed at the Solicitor General's office during an exciting phase of Philippine history in 1971 to 1974.

"I received a letter from Justice Felix Macasiar, who was then the Solicitor General, inviting me to join his office. Frankly, I had very serious doubts about the merits of joining the government. In fact, most of the members of my family did not want me to join the government. My friends were even sarcastic when I broached the idea. You know, after earning all those post-graduate degrees people expect you to join a big law office or open your own law firm. But when you join the government you know that the funds are limited and so is your income. However after long, serious consideration of the matter I finally decided to join the government service."

In 1972-1974 Bro. Rey was Acting City Judge of Quezon City Branch II and has stayed on as Assistant Solicitor General up to the present. Bro. Puno led an active life in his undergraduate days which he has carried over to his present civic, professional, fraternal and religious activities. He is at present a member of the College Editors Guild Alumni Association, University of California Alumni Association, University of Illinois Alumni Association, Philconsa, Knights of Rizal and Alpha Phi Beta Alumni Association.

His religious activities finds him a member of the Board of Trustees of the Philippine Christian Educational Foundation and former board member of the Board of Directors of the Philippine Wesleyan Foundation, Inc. At present he is a member of the corporation of the Bethel Girls High School and Knox School, Inc., aside from being the Chairman of the Administrative Board of the Knox United Methodist Church.

Bro. Rey is Past Master of Hiram Lodge No. 88 and Past Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of the Philippines. A 23^o KCCH Mason of the Luzon Bodies, he is also Royal Arch Mason of the Luzon Chapter No. 1. Whenever the brethren conduct a dialogue on management, Bro. Rey is often consulted for his expertise. He believes in making the Blue Lodges strong because it is the base of all allied and appendant bodies.

"Perhaps we can infuse the science of management in the Blue Lodges without affecting the Landmarks of our institution. This is only a matter of accomodation and understanding. But of course the velocity of change must start from the hierarchy. I am not sure if change should be done abruptly for this will produce dislocation. But I do not think that we can just stand still. I am not sure also whether standing still is what is called for by our Landmarks. Unfortunately, if there is anything that ails our fraternity it is not the lack of talents because we have a surplus of them. But I am glad that those who have the reins of leadership are not against pre-discussion of issues that bog down our fraternity."

Bro. Rey was chosen as one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men of the Philippines (TOYM) in the field of Law in 1977. In 1978 he was chosen as one of the Outstanding Prosecutors of the Philippines by the PC-CIS. He was elected co-chairman of the World Section of Prosecutors at the 8th Manila World Law Conference of the World Peace Through the Law Center. He represented the Philippines in the legal Congress of the Court of Defense of State Administration sponsored by the Advocate General of Italy in Rome. He was also a delegate to the International Law Association Conference in Manila.

Bro. Puno is married to Luzviminda T. Delgado, a lawyer, who was a student leader and was the valedictorian of her class in the College of Law at the University of the East. They are blessed with two young sons, Reynato, Jr. and Emmanuel.

A man with a very tight work schedule, he still finds time for fellowship with the Brethren. At present he is a member of the Grand Lodge Committee on Jurisprudence, Committee on Revision of Laws and also Grand Representative of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Oregon. Whenever he is given a responsibility in the Lodge he just barely squeezes time from his 25-hour work-day in order to accomodate his Brethren. In fact, the interview that I had with him was on "borrowed time."

CHARLESTON LODGE NO. 44

By WB Joaquin T. Charfauros

The story of Free Masonry in Guam and of the subsequent membership of the Lodge with the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Philippines began with the arrival, in the Philippine Islands on August 1, 1898, of the North Dakota Regiment of Volunteers, U. S. Army which fought in the Spanish-American War.

Guam by its geographical location in closely akin to the Philippines as far as sea and air travel time to and from the U. S. Mainland is concerned and by virtue of its proximity to the Philippines it naturally fell under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of the Philippines.

It was not until 1903, however, that a record of Masonic activities in Guam was chronicled. At that time, only four or five Masons were meeting regularly at one or another's home for discourse and dinner.

In 1906, this group headed by Bro. Morris O'Brien communicated with the Grand Lodge of California with the intention of establishing a Lodge in Guam. However, no satisfactory arrangements were consummated at the time and the matter was held in abeyance for the next eleven years after which time jurisdiction passed on to the Grand Lodge of the Philippines.

In 1917, Most Worshipful Bro. Charles S. Lobinger, 33rd Degree, a Deputy of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, passed through Guam on his way to his station in Shanghai, China and discussed the subject on the establishment of a Lodge in Guam with Bro. H. E. Marchant, then a resident and a leader in Masonic activities in Guam. At Bro. Lobinger's suggestion and as the first step towards creating a Lodge in Guam, Bro. Marchant and twenty-five other Master Masons organized a Masonic Sojourners' Association and set about preparing a suitable place to meet. After arrangements were made to the satisfaction of Bro. Lobinger, who considered the conditions favorable for the establishment of a Lodge, he informed the Grand Lodge of the Philippines of these facts while the members of the Sojourners' Association petitioned the Grand Master for a dispensation to form a Lodge. Said Lodge was named "Charleston" after the U. S. S. Charleston a battle cruiser that brought about the surrender of Guam Island during the Spanish-American War.

The dispensation was granted on February 4, 1918 and the first meeting of Charleston Lodge, U. D. was held on Monday, March 4th of the same year. Since that time, stated meetings of Charleston Lodge No. 44 are held on the first Monday of the month. The officers of Charleston Lodge, U. D. were: Bro. H. R. Jackson, Worshipful Master, Bro. W. M. Hantsche, Senior Warden, and Bro. H. W. Elliott, Junior Warden. Bro. W. W. Rowley, who later became the Master in 1921, had the honor of being the first Mason to be raised in Guam.

The Grand Lodge of the Philippines granted the Charter of the Charleston Lodge No. 44 on January 28, 1919 and informed the Lodge that RW Rafael Palma, Deputy Grand Master, would arrive in Guam on board an Army Transport on March 1 to constitute the Lodge and install its officers. However, the day before the arrival of the ship, a dispatch was received stating that the ship would be in port for only a few hours and that the passengers would not be allowed to go ashore. Therefore, the officers of the Lodge boarded the vessel upon its arrival; the Deputy Grand Master opened a Lodge of Master Masons in due form in the Captain's cabin; Charleston Lodge No. 44 was duly constituted and its officers installed. The proceedings of the Grand Lodge of 1920 described the ceremony as "... an impressive one with the place and circumstance unique in the annals of Masonic History."

During the succeeding years, Charleston Lodge No. 44 progressed evenly and smoothly, gradually acquiring handsome properties and a comfortable hall. It was then that VW John Taitano was made a Mason, the first Chamorro to so distinguish himself. He later became the Master of Charleston Lodge No. 44 and was once a Grand Lodge Inspector.

One of the contributions of VW Taitano to the Craft, that of keeping alive the flames of Masonry in Guam, began on that dark Monday of December 8, 1941 when the first of the Japanese Occupation Forces landed. He was discovered to be the senior Masonic officer on Guam and was thereafter subjected to every indignity in the hands of his captors. His life and the safety of his family were repeatedly threatened in the effort, on the part of the Japanese, to make him denounce his Masonic principles but the eminent Bro. Taitano demonstrated to Masons and men throughout the world that "he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved." Suffering from a serious physical handicap years before the war, as a result of an automobile accident, Bro. Taitano was saved from imminent death in the hands of the Japanese only by the courage of his wife. He kept his trust up to the day in August 1944 when he again met with his Brethren, members of the 2nd Battalion of the 3rd Marine Regiment led by Major Ralph Culpepper, who came upon him in his refuge. Bro. Taitano enjoys the respect of all those who are familiar with his story; a respect rendered to a degree seldom accorded any man or Mason; a respect never more fully earned. To WB Taitano also goes the credit for the reactivation of Masonry in Guam following the cessation of hostilities of World War II.

The following is one of those tales of chance and coincidence at which all men have marveled. The re-occupation of Guam on July 1944 by the U. S. Marines was preceded by a bombardment which levelled the city of Agana and completely destroyed the Masonic Lodge hall. Into the ruins of Agana came Bro. E. T. Jensen of Oakland, California and a member of the U. S. Landing Forces. His steps led to the demolished Lodge hall and there, in the rubble, found the charter of Charleston Lodge No. 44 still intact and undamaged. Bro. Jensen took protective custody of the charter, which he took with him to the United States for safekeeping until such time as would be propitious to establish contact with the proper Masonic authorities and return the same to Guam.

Soon thereafter, the usual "Square and Compass" clubs, marking another advance of the progress of Masonry across the Pacific, were established on Guam. Most prominent of these were the Guam Square and Compass Club with a total registry of nearly four thousand members; the Pago Bay Square and Compass Club instituted by members of the Third and Sixth Marine Divisions of the Third Marine Amphibious Corps which established an adequate perpetuating Masonic Welfare Fund; and the Masonic Club of Guam which eventually absorbed all the Square and Compass clubs, laid the foundation for post-war Masonic activities on Guam and was instrumental in the eventual implementation of the decision of the Grand Master of the Philippines to reactivate Charleston Lodge No. 44 of Guam.

The decision to rehabilitate Charleston Lodge No. 44 was reached early in March 1946 upon the recommendation of Bro. Taitano who was satisfied that circumstances and conditions were again sufficiently stable to warrant the resumption of Masonic labors at that time. Bro. Archibald E. Tanner, Col., AC, 20th Air Force, transmitted the recommendations of Bro. Taitano to MW Grand Master Michael Goldenberg who appointed Bro. Robert A. Burri, 33rd degree, Major, AC, 20th Air Force of Pythagoras Lodge No. 682, Cleveland, Ohio as his Special Representative to effect the reactivation of Charleston Lodge No. 44.

At about that same time, the Masonic Club of Guam received a communication from Bro. Jensen, reporting of his possession of the Charter of Charleston Lodge and seeking the proper authorities to whom it could be returned. A reply to his letter resulted in the delivery of the charter, by airmail, which was received by the Lodge on the very day of the first post-war regular meeting of the Lodge. There ends that strange tale of chance and coincidence and of the inestimable service to Masonry by Bro. Jensen which resulted in the restoration to its Lodge of a charter which escaped harm despite three years of Japanese occupation and city-destroying bombardment from sea and air.

The reactivation meeting of April 6, 1946, attended by four "pre-war" members of Charleston Lodge No. 44 then present in Guam, (Bro. Taitano, Hiram Elliott, Elmer Gay and James R. Lane) found conditions propitious for the resumption of Masonic work. Offered to Charleston Lodge No. 44 at this meeting were; petitions for dual membership of twenty Master Masons; the resources of the Masonic Club of Guam (which was ready to disband upon reactivation of the Lodge with its officers, Bros. George O. Van Orden, Laurence J. Demmon and Frederick D. Cortner); use of the Lodge. Hall which was converted from a quonset hut fully equipped with furnitures, furnishings and regalias sufficient for a Lodge of one hundred members (the contributions of the out-of-hours labor of the brethren of the 5th Service Depot, Fleet Marine Force under the supervision of Bros. Cortner, Walter T. Short, Harry A. Waldorf and Kenneth Tuttle).

With these resources at hand, Charleston Lodge No. 44 of Agana, Guam, became re-established on the 6th of April, 1946 and in a matter of weeks had elected and installed its officers. Kindly yet firmly and undeviatingly guided by Bro. Taitano the Lodge was well embarked on a routine of labor seldom equaled elsewhere. To Bro. Joaquin F. Sablan a Guamanian Baptist Minister of Agana Heights, falls the honor of being the first member to be raised (July 29, 1946) in the reactivated Lodge.

With Charleston Lodge No. 44 again risen from the ashes of war, no further evidence of the stability of Masonry on Guam is required.

The following is a listing of the officers for the Masonic Year 1946: Worshipful Master — Col. George O. Van Orden, USMC; Senior Warden, Laurence J. Demmon; Junior Warden, Major Frederick D. Cortner, USMC; Treasurer, Major Arvel R. Ricketts, USA; Secretary, Col. Archibald E. Tanner, USA. Appointed were: Chaplain, Rev. Hugo D. Harmeyer; Marshal, WO John M. Brown, Sr., USMC; Senior Deacon, Major Harold Boyette, USA; Junior Deacon, Capt. Ralph M. Rogers, USA; Senior Steward, Major Harry A. Waldorf, USMC; Junior Steward, Albert Kerner, USN, Ret'd; Tyler, Capt. Frederick G. Lewis, USMC. Grand Lodge Inspector — WB John Taitano, P. M. Because the City of Agana was about 99% demolished in the liberation of Guam from the Japanese, the Charleston building was among those destroyed in its entirety, but which was never compensated by the U.S. Government because no claim for compensation was ever filed. After the reactivation of Charleston Lodge No. 44, their meetings were held in quonset huts in different military areas. This was because nothing else was available but quonset huts, and meeting in different areas was because of the fact that, if the Commanding Officer of the area did not like the Masons, they are ousted from their meeting place.

The conditions were such that in 1954, the Guam Scottish Rite Bodies decided to build a Temple, one which the Masons could call their own, and with the aid of the Blue Lodges this was accomplished January 1955.

Charleston Lodge No. 44 has 410 members as of December 31, 1970, and membership continues to increase every year. Past Masters of Charleston Lodge: — William A. Hantsche, 1918; William A. Hantsche, 1919; Harry A. Nagle, 1920; Walter W. Rowley, 1921-1922; Ro-

Let us continue to do the good we have done and are doing even cheerfully giving to the needy, ready to uphold the truth and condemn a lie, to defend justice and defeat, wrong doing and to be a citizen involved in the movement to uphold human rights and the dignity of man. In all these let us all look up to Him who ruleth on high for comfort and support.

Masons, one and all, keep marching and keep faith with our Masonic ideals.

ANG MASONERIYA

Ni Ruperto J. Palentinos
(Lohiya Tayabas Blg. 43)

Ikaw kaya'y isang Mason na pagtulong ang adhika
Sa sinumang kapus-palad
Nalandasi'y dinadawag;

Taimtim sa kalooban kahi't ikaw'y kinukutya
Ang maghasik ng liwanag
At maglingkod ng matapat?

Pananalig sa Maykapal ay taimtim na panatang
Hinding-hindi magbabawa
Habang ikaw'y may hininga?

Pagka't Mason ay nilikhang hangarin ay darakila
Na palaging alaala
Ang pananampalataya?

Puso't diwa'y mga sangkap na malayang ginagamit
Sa abot ng kakayahan
Upang nasa ay makamit;

Pag-anib sa Kapisana'y mawiwikang hindi pilit
Kungdi bukal sa isipa't
Nakahandang magsumakit?

Kaya itong Masoneriya'y di papanaw sa sinukob
Magagandang mithi't layon
Lagi nitong sinusunong;

Bait, katarungan at lubusang pagtulong
Kawang-gawa at pag-ibig,
Sa daigdig ay patuloy!
